13	under this section, and upon a finding of good cause by the

18	and law on which it is based.
19	(d) If a petition for review is granted, the petitioner becomes a party
20	to the proceeding and the agency shall assign the matter to an

24	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 202. (1) In addition to
25	the loan finance charge permitted by IC 24-4.5-3-201 through
26	IC 24-4.5-3-210, a lender may contract for and receive the following
27	additional charges in connection with a consumer loan:
28	(a) Official fees and taxes.
29	(b) Charges for insurance as described in subsection (2).
30	(c) Annual or periodic participation fees assessed in connection
31	with a revolving loan account. Annual participation fees must:

35	(iii) not be assessed for the purpose of circumvention or
36	evasion of this article, as determined by the department.
37	(d) With respect to a debt secured by an interest in land, the
38	following closing costs, if they are bona fide, reasonable in

40	this article:
41	(i) Fees for title examination, abstract of title, title insurance,

8	(e) Notwithstanding provisions of the Federal Consumer Credit
9	Protection Act concerning disclosure, charges for other benefits,
10	including insurance, conferred on the debtor, if the benefits are of
11	value and if the charges are reasonable in relation to the benefits
12	are of a type which is not for credit and are excluded as
13	permissible additional charges from the loan finance charge. With
14	respect to any other additional charge not specifically provided
15	for in this section to be a permitted charge under this subsection,
16	the creditor must submit a written explanation of the charge to the
17	department indicating how the charge would be assessed and the

21	reasonable in relation to the benefits.
22	(f) A charge not to exceed twenty twenty-five dollars ($20) ($25)

26	(g) With respect to a revolving loan account, a fee not to exceed
27	twenty twenty-five dollars ($20) ($25) in each billing cycle

37	(2) An additional charge may be made for insurance in connection
38	with the loan, other than insurance protecting the lender against the
39	debtor's default or other credit loss:
40	(a) with respect to insurance against loss of or damage to property
41	or against liability, if the lender furnishes a clear and specific statement in writing to the debtor, setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the lender and stating that the debtor may choose the person, subject to the lender's reasonable approval, through whom the insurance is to be obtained; and

(b) with respect to consumer credit insurance providing life, accident, unemployment or other loss of income, or health coverage, if the insurance coverage is not a factor in the approval by the lender of the extension of credit and this fact is clearly disclosed in writing to the debtor, and if, in order to obtain the insurance in connection with the extension of credit, the debtor gives specific affirmative written indication of the desire to do so after written disclosure of the cost of the insurance.

SECTION 8. IC 24-4.5-3-402 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 402. (1) Except as provided in IC 24-9-4-3 with respect to a high cost home loan (as defined in IC 24-9-2-8), with respect to a consumer loan, other than one pursuant to a revolving loan account or one on which only loan finance charges are payable prior to the time that the final scheduled payment is due, if any scheduled payment is more than twice as large as the average of earlier scheduled payments, the debtor has the right to refinance the amount of that payment at the time it is due without penalty. The terms of the refinancing shall be no less favorable to the debtor than the terms of the original loan. This section does not apply to the extent that the payment schedule is adjusted to the seasonal or irregular income of the debtor.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, "terms of the refinancing" means:
 - (a) in the case of a fixed-rate consumer loan, the individual payment amounts, the charges as a result of default by the debtor, and the rate of the loan finance charge; and
 - (b) in the case of a variable rate consumer loan, the method used to determine the individual payment amounts, the charges as a result of default by the debtor, the method used to determine the rate of the loan finance charge, the circumstances under which the rate of the loan finance charge may increase, and any limitations on the increase in the rate of the loan finance charge.
- (3) If a consumer loan is made in compliance with the Alternative Mortgage Transaction Parity Act (12 U.S.C. 3802 et seq.), the note evidencing the mortgage must contain a reference to the applicable federal law.

1	JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 503. License to Make Consumer Loans—(1) The
2	department shall receive and act on all applications for licenses to
3	make consumer loans. Applications must be as prescribed by the
4	director of the department of financial institutions.
5	(2) A license shall not be issued unless the department finds that the
6	financial responsibility, character, and fitness of the applicant and of
7	the members of the applicant (if the applicant is a copartnership or an
8	association) and of the officers and directors of the applicant (if the 9	applicant is a corporation) are such as to warrant belief that the
10	business will be operated honestly and fairly within the purposes of this
11	article. The director is entitled to request evidence of compliance with
12	this section at:
13	(a) the time of application;
14	(b) the time of renewal of a license; or
15	(c) any other time considered necessary by the director.
16	(3) Evidence of compliance with this section may include:
17	(a) criminal background checks, including a national criminal
18	history check by the Federal Bureau of Investigation;
19	(b) credit histories; and
20	(c) other background checks considered necessary by the director.
21	(4) The department may deny an application under this section if the
22	director of the department determines that the application was
23	submitted for the benefit of, or on behalf of, a person who does not
24	qualify for a license.
25	(5) Upon written request, the applicant is entitled to a hearing on the
26	question of the qualifications of the applicant for a license as provided
27	in IC 4-21.5.
28	(6) The applicant shall pay the following fees at the time designated
29	by the department:
30	(a) An initial license fee as established by the department under
31	IC 28-11-3-5.
32	(b) An initial investigation fee as established by the department
33	under IC 28-11-3-5.
34	(c) An annual renewal fee as established by the department under
35	IC 28-11-3-5.
36	(d) (7) A fee as established by the department under IC 28-11-3-5
37	may be charged for each day the annual renewal fee under subsection
38	(6)(c) is delinquent.
39	(7) (8) The applicant may deduct the fees required under subsection
40	(6)(a) through (6)(c) from the filing fees paid under IC 24-4.5-6-203.
41	(8) (9) A loan license issued under this section is not assignable or transferable.

1	(10) The director may designate an automated central licensing
2	system and repository, operated by a third party, to serve as the
3	sole entity responsible for:
4	(a) processing applications and renewals for licenses under
5	this section; and
6	(b) performing other services that the director determines are
7	necessary for the orderly administration of the department's
8	licensing system.
9	SECTION 10. IC 24-4.5-3-504 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
10	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 504. Revocation or
11	Suspension of License—(1) The department may issue to a person
12	licensed to make consumer loans an order to show cause why the
13	license should not be revoked or suspended for a period determined by
14	the department. The order shall state the place and time for a hearing
15	and set a time for the hearing meeting with the department that is no
16	less than ten (10) days from the date of the order. After the hearing,
17	meeting, the department shall revoke or suspend the license if the
18	department finds that:
19	(a) the licensee has repeatedly and willfully violated this article
20	or any rule or order lawfully made pursuant to this article; or
21	(b) facts or conditions exist which would clearly have justified the
22	department in refusing to grant a license had these facts or
23	conditions been known to exist at the time the application for the
24	license was made.
25	(2) Except as provided in section 503.5 of this chapter, no
26	revocation or suspension of a license is lawful unless prior to
27	institution of proceedings by the department notice is given to the
28	licensee of the facts or conduct which warrant the intended action, and
29	the licensee is given an opportunity to show compliance with all lawful
30	requirements for retention of the license.
31	(3) If the department finds that probable cause for revocation of a
32	license exists and that enforcement of this article requires immediate
33	suspension of the license pending investigation, the department may,
34	after a hearing meeting with the licensee upon five (5) days written
35	notice to the licensee, enter an order suspending the license for not
36	more than thirty (30) days.
37	(4) Whenever the department revokes or suspends a license, the
38	department shall enter an order to that effect and forthwith notify the
39	licensee of the revocation or suspension. Within five (5) days after the
40	entry of the order the department shall deliver to the licensee a copy of the order and the findings supporting the order.

42

(5) Any person holding a license to make consumer loans may relinquish the license by notifying the department in writing of its relinquishment, but this relinquishment shall not affect the person's liability for acts previously committed.

- (6) No revocation, suspension, or relinquishment of a license shall impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and any debtor.
- (7) The department may reinstate a license, terminate a suspension, or grant a new license to a person whose license has been revoked or suspended if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would have justified the department in refusing to grant a license.
 - (8) If the director:

- (a) has just cause to believe an emergency exists from which it is necessary to protect the interests of the public; or
- (b) determines that the license was obtained for the benefit of, or on behalf of, a person who does not qualify for a license;

the director may proceed with the revocation of the license under IC 4-21.5-3-6.

SECTION 11. IC 24-4.5-3-505 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 505. Records; Annual Reports—(1) Every licensee shall maintain records in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and practices in a manner that will enable the department to determine whether the licensee is complying with the provisions of this article. The record keeping system of a licensee shall be sufficient if the licensee makes the required information reasonably available. The department shall determine the sufficiency of the records and whether the licensee has made the required information reasonably available. The department shall be given free access to the records wherever located. The records pertaining to any loan shall be retained for two (2) years after making the final entry relating to the loan, but in the case of a revolving loan account the two (2) years is measured from the date of each entry.

(2) Every licensee shall file with the department a composite report as required by the department, but not more frequently than annually, in the form prescribed by the department relating to all consumer loans made by the licensee. The department shall consult with comparable officials in other states for the purpose of making the kinds of information required in the reports uniform among the states. Information contained in the reports shall be confidential and may be published only in composite form. The department may impose a fee of five dollars ($5) in an amount fixed by the department under IC 28-11-3-5 for each day that a licensee fails to file the report required by this subsection.

SB 559—LS 7880/DI 13+

1	(3) Every licensee shall file notification with the department if the
2	licensee:
3	(a) has a change in name, address, or principals;
4	(b) opens a new branch, closes an existing branch, or relocates an
5	existing branch;
6	(c) files for bankruptcy or reorganization; or
7	(d) is subject to revocation or suspension proceedings by a state
8	or governmental authority with regard to the licensee's activities;
9	not later than thirty (30) days after the date of the event described in
10	this subsection.
11	(4) Every licensee shall file notification with the department if a key
12	officer or director of the licensee:
13	(a) is under indictment for a felony indictment related to the
14	licensee's activities; involving fraud, deceit, or
15	misrepresentation under the laws of Indiana or any other
16	jurisdiction; or
17	(b) has been convicted of or pleaded guilty or nolo contendere
18	to a felony related to the licensee's activities; involving fraud,
19	deceit, or misrepresentation under the laws of Indiana or any
20	other jurisdiction;
21	not later than thirty (30) days after the date of the event described in
22	this subsection.
23	SECTION 12. IC 24-4.5-4-108 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
24	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 108. Refund or Credit
25	Required; Amount — (1) Upon prepayment in full of a consumer credit
26	sale or consumer loan by the proceeds of consumer credit insurance,
27	the debtor or the debtor's estate is entitled to a refund of:
28	(a) any portion of a separate charge for insurance which by reason
29	of prepayment is retained by the creditor or returned to the
30	creditor by the insurer unless the charge was computed from time
31	to time on the basis of the balances of the debtor's account; and
32	(b) any portion of an additional charge that is:
33	(i) assessed in accordance with IC 24-4.5-2-202 or
34	IC 24-4.5-3-202; and
35	(ii) subject to rebate upon prepayment.
36	(2) This chapter does not require a creditor to grant a refund or
37	credit to the debtor if all refunds and credits due to the debtor under
38	this chapter amount to less than one dollar ($1), and except as provided
39	in subsection (1) does not require the creditor to account to the debtor
40	for any portion of a separate charge for insurance because:
41	(a) the insurance is terminated by performance of the insurer's obligation;

1	(b) the creditor pays or accounts for premiums to the insurer in
2	amounts and at times determined by the agreement between them;
3	or
4	(c) the creditor receives directly or indirectly under any policy of
5	insurance a gain or advantage not prohibited by law.
6	(3) Except as provided in subsection (2), the creditor or the
7	creditor's assignee shall promptly make an appropriate refund or credit
8	to the debtor for any separate charge made for insurance if:
9	(a) the insurance is not provided or is provided for a term shorter
10	than the term for which the charge to the debtor for insurance was
11	computed; or
12	(b) the insurance terminates prior to the end of the scheduled term
13	of the insurance because of prepayment in full or otherwise.
14	(4) A refund or credit required by subsection (3) is appropriate as to
15	amount if it is computed according to a method prescribed or approved
16	by the insurance commissioner or a formula filed by the insurer with
17	the insurance commissioner at least thirty (30) days before the debtor's
18	right to a refund or credit becomes determinable, unless the method or
19	formula is used after the insurance commissioner notifies the insurer
20	that it is disapproved.
21	(5) If a refund or credit required by subsection (3) (1) is not made
22	to the debtor within sixty (60) days after the date the insurance debt is
23	terminated, due to prepayment in full or otherwise, the creditor shall
24	pay to the debtor for each day after the sixty (60) day period has
25	expired an amount equal to the daily interest at the contracted annual
26	percentage rate on the amount of the eredit insurance premium refund
27	required by subsection (1) due at the time of prepayment or
28	termination. The director may impose an additional civil penalty of
29	not greater than one thousand dollars ($1,000) per occurrence if a
30	creditor engages in a pattern or practice of failing to comply with
31	the subsection.

38	on the department's own initiative;
39	(b) counsel persons and groups on their rights and duties under
40	this article;
41	(c) establish programs for the education of consumers with

2	policies of this article and make the results available to the public;
3	(e) adopt, amend, and repeal substantive rules when specifically
4	authorized by this article, and adopt, amend, and repeal
5	procedural rules, orders, policies, and forms to carry out the
6	provisions of this article;
7	(f) maintain more than one (1) office within Indiana; and
8	(g) appoint any necessary attorneys, hearing examiners, clerks,
9	and other employees and agents and fix their compensation, and
10	authorize attorneys appointed under this section to appear for and
11	represent the department in court.
12	(2) No liability is imposed under this article for an act done or
13	omitted in conformity with a rule, written notice, written opinion,
14	written interpretation, or written directive of the department
15	notwithstanding that after the act or omission the rule, written notice,

20	SECTION 9, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE
21	JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 106. Examinations—(1) In administering this
22	article and in order to determine whether the provisions of this article
23	are being complied with by persons engaging in acts subject to this
24	article, the department may examine the books and records of persons
25	and may make investigations of persons as may be necessary to
26	determine compliance. Records subject to examination under this
27	section include the following:
28	(a) Training, operating, and policy manuals.
29	(b) Minutes of:
30	(i) management meetings; and
31	(ii) other meetings.
32	(c) Other records that the department determines are

35	witnesses, compel their attendance, adduce evidence, and require the
36	production of any matter which is relevant to the investigation. The
37	department shall determine the sufficiency of the records maintained
38	and whether the person has made the required information reasonably available. The records pertaining to any transaction subject to this article shall be retained for two (2) years after making the final entry relating to the consumer credit transaction, but in the case of a revolving loan account or revolving charge account, the two (2) years is measured from the date of each entry.

(2) If the department:

- (a) investigates; or
- (b) examines the books and records of;

a person that is subject to IC 24-4.5-6-201, IC 24-4.5-6-202, and IC 24-4.5-6-203, the person shall pay all reasonably incurred costs of the investigation or examination in accordance with the fee schedule adopted by the department under IC 28-11-3-5. However, the person is liable for the costs of an investigation or examination under this subsection only to the extent that the costs exceed the amount of the filing fees paid most recently under IC 24-4.5-6-203. Any costs required to be paid under this subsection shall be paid not later than sixty (60) days after the person receives a notice from the department of the costs being assessed. The department may impose a fee, in an amount fixed by the department under IC 28-11-3-5, for each day that the assessed costs are not paid, beginning on the first day after the sixty (60) day period described in this subsection.

- (3) The department shall be given free access to the records wherever located. If the person's records are located outside Indiana, the records shall be made available to the department at a convenient location within Indiana, or the person shall pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the department or its representative to examine them where they are maintained. The department may designate comparable officials of the state in which the records are located to inspect them on behalf of the department.
- (4) Upon failure without lawful excuse to obey a subpoena or to give testimony and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the department may apply to (any civil) court for an order compelling compliance.
- (5) The department shall not make public the name or identity of a person whose acts or conduct the department investigates pursuant to this section or the facts disclosed in the investigation, but this subsection does not apply to disclosures in actions or enforcement proceedings pursuant to this article.

SECTION 15. IC 24-4.5-6-113 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 113. Civil Actions by Department—(1) After demand, the department may bring a civil action against a creditor for making or collecting charges in excess of those permitted by this article. An action may relate to transactions with more than one debtor. If it is found that an excess charge has been made, the court shall order the respondent to refund to the debtor or debtors the amount of the excess charge. If a creditor has made an excess charge in deliberate violation of or in reckless disregard for this article, or if a creditor has refused to refund an excess charge within a reasonable time after demand by the debtor or the department, the court may also order the respondent to pay to the debtor or debtors a civil penalty in an amount determined by the court not in excess of the greater of either the amount of the credit service or loan finance charge or ten (10) times the amount of the charge. Refunds and penalties to which the debtor is entitled pursuant to this subsection may be set off against the debtor's obligation. If a debtor brings an action against a creditor to recover an excess charge or civil penalty, an action by the department to recover for the same excess charge or civil penalty shall be stayed while the debtor's action is pending and shall be dismissed if the debtor's action is dismissed with prejudice or results in a final judgment granting or denying the debtor's claim. With respect to excess charges arising from sales made pursuant to revolving charge accounts or from loans made pursuant to revolving loan accounts, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than two (2) years after the time the excess charge was made. With respect to excess charges arising from other consumer credit sales or consumer loans, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one (1) year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement pursuant to which the charge was made. If the creditor establishes by a preponderance of evidence that a violation is unintentional or the result of a bona fide error, no liability to pay a penalty shall be imposed under this subsection.

(2) The department may bring a civil action against a creditor or a person acting in his behalf to recover a civil penalty for willfully violating this article, and if the court finds that the defendant has engaged in a course of repeated and willful violations of this article, it may assess a civil penalty of no more than five thousand dollars ($5,000). No civil penalty pursuant to this subsection may be imposed for violations of this article occurring more than two (2) years before the action is brought or for making unconscionable agreements or engaging in a course of fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

(3) If the department determines, after notice and opportunity for hearing, that a person has violated this article, the department may, in addition to or instead of all other remedies available under this section, impose upon the person a civil penalty not greater than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per violation.

4	may make any of the following:
5	(A) Any loan that may be made by a federal credit union.
6	However, IC 24-4.5 applies to any loan that is:
7	(i) made under this clause; and
8	(ii) within the scope of IC 24-4.5.
